

མ་ནམ་སྐྱོན་ལྷན་ཁག
མོ་ནམ་མཐུན་འགྲུར་ཚོང་འབྲེལ་རྒྱུད་བ་ཡར་དྲག་ལས་འགུལ།

Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock
Building Resilient Commercial Smallholder Agriculture Project
Samtenling: Sarpang

MoAL/PMU-BRECSA/17/2023-24/84

1st January 2024

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

The Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock (MoAL) of the Royal Government of Bhutan (RGoB) is implementing Building Resilient Commercial Smallholder Agriculture (BRECSA) project. The seven year project is financed by Global Agriculture and Food Security and co-financed by International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD). As required by the project document, the Project Management Unit (PMU), Samtenling, Sarpang, inviting competent consulting firms to submit EOI for baseline study.

The study is basically to gather baseline data as per the logframe for project monitoring, evaluation and impact assessment at the end of the project period. The detail of the baseline study is given below:

Sl. #	Parameters	Detail
1	Name of the work	BRECSA project baseline study
2	Coverage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Four Dzongkhags (Sarpang, Zhemgang, Trongsa and Tsirang) • 37 Gewogs of project Dzongkhags
3	Work duration	90 days
4	Consultant required	National
5	Deliverables	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inception Report • Detailed sample size and sampling frame • Baseline survey questionnaire • Findings brief • Final Database • Final Report
6	Employer	Project Director, Project Management Unit, BRECSA, Samtenling, Sarpang

The interested national consulting firms are requested to submit the EOI before within 1st February 2024. The interested firm can download the detailed ToR from www.moal.gov.bt. For further details kindly contact Mr. Sonam Gyaltshen, Project Director at sonamgyeltshen@moal.gov.bt (77301004).

Project Director
PMU, BRECSA Project

